| COAA/MOAA Issue 1: Director: Mamadou Samba | MOAA Updates: Deputy Director Heran Sereke-Brhan: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> African Community Grant FY 2017: This would be the fourth cycle. Requests for applications have been posted. Deadline for organizations to apply is July 27, 2016. MOAA is looking for a minimum of 30 grant reviewers. Commissioners are welcome to apply. Each proposal is about 25 pages. Commissioner Willair volunteered to be a reviewer. Update on the 2nd Annual Young African ConneXions Summit and the Mandela Day of Service. More partners have joined MOAA and both the summit and the Mandela Day of Service programs have grown. MOAA is looking for volunteers for both days. Commissioner Barnes volunteered for the Mandela Day of Service. Commissioner Udejiofor will be there for the summit. The office is looking for volunteers especially for Saturday’s river clean-up. Volunteers will help at specific stations and with registration as well. Regarding Saturday’s event there will be a free shuttle from Anacostia Metro to the event; Director Samba will provide remarks as will other DC agency directors and partners. There will be live drummers. Alice Ferguson Foundation will also be involved. MOAA hopes this event becomes the trademark for the office. Chairwoman Asare offered her congratulations on the “Know Your Rights” town hall event calling it a great initiative. She complemented Commissioner St. Vil’s role as host and facilitator. There should be a follow-up town hall discussion on education. | | |
