

EKO | African Diaspora Coding Academy Session 1 Graduation

On Saturday, December 12, 2015, The Mayor's Office on African Affairs (MOAA), in partnership with the Office of the Chief Technology Officer (OCTO), the Department of Human Resources (DCHR)'s Center for Learning and Development, and Coders4Africa (C4A), hosted a graduation ceremony for its EKO | African Diaspora Coding Academy Session I.

Forty graduates of the program came out of this first session with website development and coding skills. About 50 community members, including several members of the Commission on African Affairs, MOAA staff and invitees attended the graduation ceremony.

To learn more about the EKO program, watch this short video, and to see more pictures of the EKO program, click here.