EKO | African Diaspora Coding Academy Session II Graduation

On Saturday, March 26, 2016, the Mayor's Office on African Affairs (MOAA) in partnership with the Office of the Chief Technology Officer (OCTO), the Department of Human Resources (DCHR)'s Center for Learning and Development, and Coders4Africa (C4A), hosted a graduation ceremony for its EKO | African Diaspora Coding Academy Session II.

Thirty graduates of the program completed the second session acquiring website development and coding skills. About 50 community members, including several members of the Commission on African Affairs, MOAA staff and invitees attended the graduation ceremony.

To learn more about the EKO program, watch this short video, and to see more pictures of the EKO graduation, click here.