Issue 3

COAA Sub-Committee/Project Reports

- Coders for Africa will plan to hire 3-4 of their top performing students from their mobile and web classes.

- The budget hearing date is to be determined. There is a chance that the oversight hearing will be in the month of May.

Chair suggested inviting individuals who can speak and write –one minute to testify to come to the hearing, and testimony should focus on the need for funding.

- For the budget hearing, it was suggested that MOAA provide Key Performance Indicator(KPI) AS FY '17, so that COAA can provide better testimony. COAA also asked MOAA about their specific importance.
- Commissioner Barnes suggested asking for more staffing because of a growing and increasing demand of service from the community.

On Demographic need- it was suggested that a draft of the joint study by MOAA/ George Mason University on the summative communities can be utilized. An info-graphic is a good tool to have for submission.

Commissioners St. Vil and Barnes will attend the hearing.
Commissioners St. Vil and Nicoue will write testimony.
Commissioners Anyanwu will testify

- Sub- Committee: Health, Wellness and the Arts
Commissioners, Nwabukwu , Geremaw, and Afari-Dawameni met and shared their idea for organizing a community-based health fair that would include topics such as domestic violence and mental health. The fair could be in partnership with various community groups, agencies and companies.

The DC Department of Health will be contacted to discuss policies and procedures that would need to be followed for the fair.

- Sub- Committee: Civic and Community Engagement
Commissioners, George and Udejiofor will work on a theme “Africa has Talent” by involving the communities as well as the grantees.

MOAA/COAA will team up with the White House for citizenship project.
Public attendee Ms. Malia volunteered to help.

- Regional Advisory Board
Commissioners St. Vil and Barnes met with Congressman Payne, Jr and Clark on HR371. Resolution was introduced with 50 sponsors. The congressional staff will meet with COAA.

- Public attendee Johnson informed the public that the street car will be free of charge for the public in the coming six months.
- Internship for graduate students.
- Funding training opportunity.
